DRAFT PROGRAM

Introduction

The 2014 Asia-Pacific Forum on Financial Inclusion is hosted by the Asia-Pacific Finance and Development Center (AFDC) and co-organized by the APEC Business Advisory Council (ABAC), the Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI) and the Foundation for Development Cooperation (FDC), with Sponsorship support from the Citi Foundation. The Forum brings together participants from the public and private sectors, including financial regulators and policy makers, multilateral institutions, financial institutions and related market players, microfinance institutions, financial inclusion experts, industry organizations and private foundations. By providing a platform for high-level dialogue amongst policy makers and regulators across the region, the Forum aims to strengthen their capacity as well as provide specific points of advice for policy related issues impacting financial inclusion in the region.

More specifically, the 2014 Forum will provide an opportunity for stakeholders to review the current trends, recent achievements, ongoing challenges and opportunities within the region relative to financial inclusion and discuss how these developments are impacting different markets. Through this review process the Forum organizers aim to identify priorities for future initiatives of the Advisory Group on APEC Financial System Capacity Building to further support financial inclusion.
