

Suzanne M. Benoit was appointed President of Aéro Montréal in August 2006. Prior to joining Aéro Montréal, she led the Longueuil Economic Development Agency as its President and CEO from the day it was founded in 2002. From 1999 to 2003, she led the foreign investment prospecting team in the Americas division of Investissement Québec. Between 1991 and 1999, she held various management positions with Hydro-Québec, including Director of Governmental and Institutional Relations and Director of Industrial and Economic Development in the utility's Major Industrial Clients division.

Beginning in 1979, she worked in the federal civil service in Ottawa and elsewhere in Canada as an Assistant Director at International Affairs, Industry Canada, responsible for industrial cooperation between Canada and Japan and Canada and South Korea. Ms. Benoit was also an Assistant Director in the Defence Program Bureau at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Trade.

She holds a BA and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Ottawa, and in 2014, she completed corporate director training at McGill University as part of the Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD) program.