

Wayne Kenneth Golding, OBE, is founding Chairman and past President of the Manufacturers' Council of Papua New Guinea. He has investments in banking, land and housing development, manufacturing, retail and wholesale of consumer goods, financial and banking services, minerals and energy resources, and holds the position of Chairman and/or Director of companies holding these investments. He held public office in various boards and committees. On a regional basis, Mr. Golding is a trade and investment negotiator, having represented the 14 Island Countries of the Pacific in their negotiations with the United States of America and the European Union. Currently, the center piece of his investment portfolio and interest is 2G Development Co. Limited, a large-scale land and housing developer.

Mr. Golding is a non-practising accountant by profession.