

Nicholas Ho currently serves as Chairman of hpa (Ho & Partners Architects), a leading multi-disciplinary architectural design practice headquartered in Hong Kong. He is member of the HKSAR Youth Development Commission and HKSAR Trade and Industry Advisory Board, council member of Lingnan University and Hong Kong Institute of Architects. Dedicated to public service and policy advocacy, Mr. Ho is a member of 2021 HKSAR Election Committee.

With landmark projects across 50 cities in 12 countries totaling over 1 billion square feet of construction footprint, hpa has firmly established itself as an international and technologically advanced advisory platform for four decades. Since 2016, hpa has also spearheaded numerous SMART Cities initiatives by partnering with and investing in dozens of tech partners and solution providers globally, actively nurturing an ecosystem for technology development. Its advisory role and comprehensive services add value to clients' projects, including national governments and private sectors, with whom it has successfully collaborated in over six countries.

Mr. Ho has a keen interest in exporting Hong Kong professional services abroad, as exemplified by his current projects across Southeast Asia, Europe and the USA. Aligning with the PRC's mandate to develop the Belt and Road Initiative, he has been actively establishing partnership alliances along the New Silk Road.
