

Richard von Appen is the Chairman of Ultramar, a group of companies dedicated to maritime agencies, ports and logistics, operating in the Americas.

He is also the current Chairman of SOFOFA, Chile's main business council and manufacturers' association.

In addition to his corporate responsibilities, he is Chairman of Fundación Abeto, a charitable foundation that supports social needs and special education programs for children and youth of scarce economic resources.

Mr. von Appen holds a Business Administration Degree from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and a Master of Science in Management from Stanford University, U.S.A.