

APFF Roundtable on Expanding Trans-Pacific Opportunities for Long-Term Investment in Infrastructure

25 July 2017
Toronto, Canada

Purpose: To bring together the following to identify forms of collaboration leading to actual investment in infrastructure between both sides of the Pacific:

- Authorities in charge of infrastructure from selected economies (Philippines, Vietnam, Thailand, Indonesia, Chile, Canada, USA)
- Potential investors (pension funds, insurance firms, asset managers, commercial banks) from North America and Asia
- Infrastructure experts (legal, consulting, academe, credit rating agencies)
- Multilateral development banks and export credit agencies

Agenda

Opening Session

- Welcome and opening remarks, keynote

Session 1: Opportunities in infrastructure in APEC (presentations on major current and planned infrastructure projects across the region and prospects)

Overview by Global Infrastructure Hub

Panel discussants to be invited:

- PPP Center, Philippines
- Ministry of Planning, Vietnam
- Ministry of Finance, Thailand
- PPP Center, Indonesia
- Infrastructure Policy Council, Chile
- US Treasury or Special Assistant to the President on Infrastructure Policy
- The Canadian Council for Public-Private Partnerships

Session 2: Prospects for infrastructure investment (plans of investors to invest in infrastructure in Asia and the Americas, issues they face, how to facilitate)

Overview by OECD

Panel discussants:

- CDPQ
- CPPIB
- OMERS
- OTPP
- Sun Life
- Manulife
- Prudential
- AIA
- MetLife
- Nippon Life Investment
- HSBC
- China Construction Bank
- ICBC
- GPIF
- Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ

- Nomura Asset Management

Session 3: Developing Innovative Financing Vehicles for Long-Term Investment in Infrastructure

Overview by PwC

Panel discussants:

- Macquarie Infrastructure and Real Assets
- IFC/WBG
- ADB
- AIA
- Amundi
- CGIF

Concluding Session

- Closing remarks