

Shinta Kamdani is owner and CEO of Sintesa Group (www.sintesagroup.com), which operates in the four pillars of business, namely: Property, Industrial Products, Energy and Consumer Products.

Ms. Kamdani is also leading various organizations, including as the Coordinating Vice Chairman III for Maritime, Investment and Foreign Affairs, KADIN Indonesia and Employers' Association of Indonesia (APINDO), Executive Board of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), President of Indonesia Business Council for Sustainable Development (IBCSD), and Founder of Indonesia Business Coalition for Women Empowerment (IBCWE). She is also among the few business leaders to join Global Investors for Sustainable Development (GISD Alliance) and the Chair of Business Twenty (B20) Indonesia in 2022.

She has been awarded by many leading organizations, among others, Forbes Asia as one of the 50 Powerful Businesswomen (2012, 2013 & 2016). In 2017, she was also decorated as the Commander of the Polar Star by King Carl XVI Gustaf of Sweden and the Commander of the Order of Leopold of Belgium. In 2019, she was named Woman Entrepreneur of the Year at ACES Award. She earned her degree from the Barnard College of Columbia University in 1989 and attended the Harvard Business School Executive Program from 2000 to 2002.