

Alfonso Bustamante Canny is CEO and founding partner of CFI Holdings S.A., a private holding company with interests in energy, land development, and agriculture. In financial services, he participates as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Consejeros, a Peruvian insurance broker, and as Member of the Investment Committee of SUMMA Investment Fund.

In the food industry sector, Mr. Bustamante is founding Chairman of Cerro Prieto Group, an integrated producer, packer, and exporter of fresh produce. He also participates as Member of the Board of Directors in Agrícola Chapi and Quijas.

In the energy sector, Mr. Bustamante is a founding partner of Huaura Power Group and Colca Solar, leading hydroelectric projects and solar panels located at the north of Lima. He is also an Independent Director of Calidda and FIMA.

He is an active business leader serving as Member of the Board of Directors of the Foreign Trade Society of Peru (COMEXPERU); the National Confederation of Private Business Institutions (CONFIEP); and the Chilean Peruvian Business Council. He was also the President of the Pacific Alliance Business Council and the Chair of APEC CEO Summit 2016.

Mr. Bustamante holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from Boston University's School of Management.