

Nobuhide Hayashi has served as Senior Advisor for Mizuho Bank, Ltd. (MHBK), one of Japan's top ranked banks with over 460 branches in Japan and 89 overseas offices, since April 2019. He joined the company in 1980 and has been in the banking industry for over 39 years. During this period, he has been involved in the international banking business, corporate banking business and strategy development, with overseas assignments in New York and Hong Kong.

He served as Chairman from 2017 to 2019. As President and Chief Executive Officer of MHBK from 2014 to 2017, he oversaw transformations in corporate culture and business models of MHBK from a traditional domestically focused bank into a global financial services leader with assets of more than USD 1.4 trillion.

From 2014 to 2019, Mr. Hayashi served as a Board Director of the Institute of International Finance, to provide leadership to the international financial industry. He also served as Vice Chairman of Japan-China Economic Association. Currently, he serves as Chairman of Asia-Japan Relations Committee at Japan Association of Corporate Executives and Independent Director of Kao Corporation.

Mr. Hayashi obtained a Bachelor's degree from the Faculty of Economics at the University of Tokyo.