

Kyung Shik Sohn is Chairman of the Korea Enterprises Federation (KEF), an organization that is dedicated to building industrial peace and improving national competitiveness through labor-management cooperation and economic growth. Having demonstrated great leadership and expertise throughout his career, Mr. Sohn has been invited and assumed various roles to represent as well as serve the business community, both domestically and internationally. He has served three consecutive terms starting from 2005 as Chairman of the Korea Chamber of Commerce & Industry (KCCI) and is currently its honorary chairman. He also contributed to expanding Korea's global partnerships as a member of the Presidential Committee for the G20 Summit and Chairman of the Seoul G20 Business Summit Organizing Committee in 2010.

Mr. Sohn is Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of CJ Group. CJ Group is Korea's leading lifestyle and culture corporate. He received the Gold Tower Industry Award from the Korean government in 2002, the Order of Dostlik from the Uzbekistan government in 2011, and the Van Fleet Award from the Korea Society in 2018.

Mr. Sohn holds a Bachelor's degree in Law (1961) from Seoul National University and a Master of Business Administration degree (1968) from Oklahoma State University.