

Guillermo Rafael Miller Suárez is International Affairs Vice President of the Mexican Chemical Manufacturers Association.

He worked at DuPont in Mexico. Today, he is an active member of the Mexican Council of International Trade (COECE), member of the Trade Policy Group of the International Council of Chemical Associations (ICCA), member of the board of the Mexican Trade Commission in the Ministry of Economy, and since 2001, part of the Chemical Dialogue in APEC. He has also served as President of the International Trade and Customs Commission of the Industrial Chambers Confederation of Mexico.

Mr. Miller was educated as a Chemical Engineer at the Iberoamericana University in Mexico.