

Jan De Silva brings a unique mix of business leadership, financial services and government relations experience in Canada and APEC/ASEAN.

She is Canada Co-Chair of the Canada-ASEAN Business Council (CABC), a corporate director and strategic advisor.

She is the former President & CEO of Toronto Region Board of Trade, one of the largest and most influential business organizations in North America. As an extension of her work at the Board of Trade, Ms. De Silva remains highly engaged in energy transition and digital transformation.

She has more than 14 years of international CEO experience leading to Sun Life Financial's Hong Kong and Mainland China businesses; and as founding CEO of Retail China Limited. She also served as Dean of Ivey Asia for Ivey Business School of Western University.

Highly respected for her business advocacy and government engagement, Ms. De Silva has been Chair of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, China; Chair of the Canada-China Business Council in Beijing; and served on the Board of the Asian Corporate Governance Association. She has served on a number of public and private boards and presently sits on the board of Building Ontario Fund (formerly Ontario Infrastructure Bank) and is Chair-elect of Canada's Oceans Supercluster a national, industry led oceans economy consortium.