

Jan De Silva is Canada Co-Chair of the Canada-ASEAN Business Council (CABC). She previously served as Special Advisor to the Toronto Region Board of Trade, one of the largest and most influential business organizations in North America, where she was President and CEO from January 2015 to September 2023. In this role, she spearheaded efforts to make Toronto one of the most competitive and sought-after business regions in the world.

She has more than 14 years of international CEO experience building ambitious, high-growth organizations. Anchored in her leadership is her belief in the power of economic development to lift communities. Prior to joining the Board, she served as CEO of Sun Life Financial's Hong Kong and Mainland China businesses. She co-founded, was CEO and later sold Retail China Limited. She also served as Dean of Ivey Asia for Ivey Business School of Western University.

Highly respected for her business advocacy and government engagement, Ms. De Silva has been Chair of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, Chair of the Canada China Business Council in Beijing and served on the Board of the Asian Corporate Governance Association. She also sits on the board of Intact Financial Corporation, listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and Building Ontario Fund (formerly Ontario Infrastructure Bank).
