

Anna Curzon is a global Small Business and FinTech Specialist. Before pivoting her career to pursue a Governance portfolio, she was previously the Chief Product Officer of Xero and over her seven-year tenure, led the global product team across product development, design, management, and marketing to make a macro impact on the lives of small business owners and their advisors around the globe.

Driven by the power and potential of technology to solve real world problems, she leverages more than 20 years of experience in finance and technology to deliver strategies that enable a more inclusive and resilient economy through digital technology.

Ms. Curzon served on the New Zealand Prime Minister's Business Advisory Council from 2018 to 2020 under Dame Jacinda Ardern. In 2017, she was named among the Top 25 Women Leaders in SaaS by the global SaaS Report.
