

Fumiya Kokubu is currently Chairman of the Board of Marubeni Corporation, one of Japan's largest diversified trading conglomerates. Prior to this, Mr. Kokubu served as President and CEO of Marubeni Corporation from 2013 to 2019. He joined the Energy Division of the Marubeni Corporation in 1975. He has spent much of his career overseas having worked in the US, Singapore and Hong Kong. In 2003, he was named Chairman and Managing Director of Marubeni Hong Kong & South China Ltd. He became a Corporate Vice President and COO of Marubeni's Energy Division from 2006 to 2008 and a Managing Executive Officer and Member of the Board from 2008. From 2010 to 2012, he was a Senior Managing Executive Officer, Regional CEO for the Americas, President and CEO of Marubeni America Corporation and Marubeni Canada Ltd. Mr. Kokubu has also held such key positions as CIO and COO of the Secretariat, Corporate Communications, Corporate Planning & Strategy, Global Strategy & Coordination and Information Strategy Departments, and the Marubeni Research Institute as well as Chairman of the Investment & Credit, CSR & Environment, and Internal Control Committees.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Keio University.