

Laura Lane is EVP and Chief Corporate Affairs Officer at UPS, where she oversees Public Policy and Government Affairs, Communications, Sustainability, Community Relations and The UPS Foundation as a member of the company's Executive Leadership Team.

She serves on the Board of several U.S. business associations and non-profits, including the Atlantic Council and The Woodruff Arts Center.

She began her UPS career as President, Global Public Affairs in 2011. Prior to UPS, she was Managing Director and Head of International Government Affairs at Citigroup and Vice President for Global Public Policy with Time Warner.

Before joining the private sector, Ms. Lane served as a trade negotiator in the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative. She also served as a diplomat in the U.S. Foreign Service from 1990-1997, including in Bogota, Colombia and Kigali, Rwanda.

Ms. Lane holds a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and History from Loyola University and a Master's Degree in Foreign Service in International Economics and Business Diplomacy from Georgetown University.