

Cristián Lefevre is President of EY Chile. He is an expert in corporate governance, family businesses, economic activity, regulations, private investments and business trust. With a career spanning more than 35 years, he has national and international experience mainly in auditing and consulting services for banks, retail, manufacturing, mining, and financial sectors.

From 2005 to 2017, he was country Managing Partner, responsible for market and operations, and has been a Partner of the firm since 1999. He has played a key role in leading the growth of EY from a company of around 20 partners upon his arrival to a team of more than 80 partners, generating more than US$ 110 million annually.

He is Senior Advisory Partner of EY Chile's most important clients, including the financial and retail industries; member of the Market Segment Board of Latin America and of the Executive Committee of the firm since 2001.

He is a Director of the Fundacion Chilena del Pacifico, CEP, Emprende tu mente (ETM), Fundación País Digital, President of the Institute of Directors of Chile (IDDC), part of the Board of ETM and, through alliances with Endeavor and El Mercurio newspaper, is a strong promoter of entrepreneurship and innovation.

Prior to joining EY, he was a Global Partner at Arthur Andersen and its predecessor firm, Langton Clarke, a member firm of Coopers & Lybrand.