

H.S. Cho is Vice Chairman of HS Hyosung Group, a major South Korean conglomerate. His career began in 1993 with Marubeni Corporation in Tokyo, followed by a consultant role at Bain & Company in Tokyo and Seoul. In 1999, Mr. Cho joined NTT Communications in Tokyo as a Corporate Sales Manager.

Mr. Cho moved to Hyosung Corporation in 2000, where he held various senior positions, including President of the Industrial Materials Performance Group and Chief Management Officer of the Chemicals Performance Group. By 2018, Mr. Cho was named Group President and Executive Managing Director. He became Vice Chairman of Hyosung in 2021, and in 2024, he was appointed Vice Chairman of HS Hyosung Group.

Aside from his corporate responsibilities, Mr. Cho is deeply involved in international economic relations. He serves as the Chairman of the Korea-Viet Nam Economic Cooperation Committee and actively participates in global forums such as the World Economic Forum and the Seoul Forum of International Affairs.

Mr. Cho holds a degree in Economics from Brown University, reflecting his strong academic foundation and professional achievements.