

Sarah Ottrey's international marketing management and governance career has been spent championing the brands and business of Aotearoa New Zealand with a focus on growing travel and tourism, agribusiness and food, health and sustainability.

She is currently the Chairperson of Christchurch International Airport, the world's gateway to the unmatched beauty and adventure attractions of the South Island. In addition, she is Chairperson of The Whitestone Cheese Co Ltd., New Zealand's leading specialty cheesemaker, and a company director of the international tourism and hospitality company Skyline Enterprises Ltd. (Skyline Luge welcomes guests in NZ, Canada, Korea, Singapore and Malaysia), and the premium Mt. Cook Alpine Salmon, the world's only producer and exporter of freshwater king salmon. Ms. Ottrey is a council member of the New Zealand-China Business Council.

In 2024 and 2025, she was a delegate on the New Zealand Prime Minister's Trade Missions to Southeast Asia, China and Japan and Business Delegate Leader to Malaysia, Viet Nam and Korea.

As a Chartered Fellow of the New Zealand Institute of Directors, she advocates for diversity at the board table and strong governance that supports resilient, sustainable, competitive and growing organizations.
