

The Hon. Philip Dalidakis is the Managing Partner of Orizontas, a Board and CEO advisory firm focused on reputational, climate and political risk and its group of companies.

He served as a Member of the Victorian Parliament from 2014 to 2019 and as the Victorian Minister for Trade and Investment, Innovation and the Digital Economy and Small Business.

As Trade & Investment Minister, he was responsible for trade strategies for China, India, South East Asia & also Latin America, implemented a cybersecurity strategy, created the Oceania Cyber Security Centre & auspiced several international MoUs between Victoria, the United Kingdom, United States & Israel with a focus on Ai & the protection of cyber infrastructure.

He currently acts as a director on boards including Gelteq, a clinical and science-based company with operations across Australia, China and the United States, the Washington DC based Center for Asia Pacific Strategy and is the Chairman of VOICsa, a not-for-profit charity for victims of child sex abuse.

He has a Master of Commerce from University of New South Wales, a Bachelor of Arts (Politics & Thai language) and a Bachelor of Business (Management) from Monash University, and is conversant in Greek, Thai and Issan.