

Bimal Patel, appointed General Counsel of PayPal in January 2022, oversees the company's global legal and corporate secretary function across 200 markets and brings deep experience in the private and public sectors.

He joined PayPal in 2021 from the U.S. Department of the Treasury. Following his confirmation by the U.S. Senate, he served as Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions and was responsible for overseeing several key portfolios, including the Office of Financial Institutions Policy, the Financial Stability Oversight Council, the Office of Cybersecurity and Critical Infrastructure Protection, the Federal Insurance Office, and the Office of Economic and Community Development.

Before his Treasury service, Mr. Patel was a Partner and the Head of the Financial Advisory and Regulation Practice at O'Melveny & Myers LLP and a Senior Advisor at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

He holds a JD from Georgetown University Law Center, a Master's degree in Public Policy from Harvard Kennedy School, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and Political Science from Stanford University.