

Gina Ocqueteau Tacchini is Chair of the Board of SQM (Sociedad Química y Minera de Chile). She serves as a director for Enel Chile, Zona Franca de Iquique S.A. (ZOFRI), Fundación País Digital, Fundación Imagen de Chile, Chile Pacific Foundation and UDD Ventures. Additionally, she is a member of the Advisory Board of Salcobrand and a counselor for Fundación Chile Mujeres. She possesses over 30 years of experience in leadership, strategic management, and corporate governance, with a proven track record in regulated industries, trade organizations, and foundations focused on productive development, innovation, sustainability, and Chile's international profile.

A registered nurse from the Universidad de Chile, she completed post-graduate studies and executive programs in administration, productivity, and corporate governance, both in Chile and abroad. For over three decades, she developed her career at the Asociación Chilena de Seguridad (ACHS), where she held various leadership positions in management, organizational development, and safety culture. She has been recognized on several occasions as one of Chile's "100 Women Leaders," reflecting her contribution to business leadership, gender equality, and the strengthening of corporate governance in Chile.