

Ivan Marambio is the President of the Chile Pacific Foundation, Frutas de Chile, the largest fruit exporters' association in Chile, and the Chile-India Bilateral Business Council of SOFOFA, Chile's main business association. He is also a board member at Imagen de Chile, the agency in charge of managing the Chile brand.

Mr. Marambio's professional life has been linked to the fruit industry, initially, through his work at various law firms and as an executive at Dole Chile S.A., where he held leadership roles in the legal departments for Chile, Latin America and South Africa, focusing on sustainability and the company's activities related to its vegetable lines and fresh fruit exports from different countries.
