

Mario Larenas is Country Manager for Chile of Minera Freeport-McMoRan.

From August 2013 to December 2017, he served as Legal Director of Freeport-McMoRan and was also in charge of the Compliance, Mining Property and Environment areas. From December 2017 to May 2023, Human Resources and Administration, as well as Sales and Logistics of Freeport-McMoRan's operations in South America, were added to his responsibilities. He was appointed to his current position in June 2023.

Mr. Larenas is a member of the Board of Directors of Chile's Mining Council and Sociedad Contractual Minera El Abra as well as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Freeport McMoRan Chile Foundation. In addition, he was elected Director of Amcham Chile for the period 2026-2028 and appointed Chair of the Amcham Chile Corporate Governance and Compliance Committee.

He obtained his law degree from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and Master of Laws from the School of Law of the Columbia University in New York. He also holds a Certificate in Business Unit Management from the Center for Executive Education of the Adolfo Ibañez University in Santiago, Chile.