

Mario Larenas is the Country Manager Chile, Minera Freeport-McMoRan. He is a lawyer graduated from Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and holds a Master of Laws from the School of Law of the Columbia University, NY, USA. He also holds a Certificate in Business Unit Management from the Center for Executive Education of the Adolfo Ibañez University, Santiago, Chile.

From August 2013 to December 2017, he served as Legal Director of Freeport-McMoRan and was also in charge of the Compliance, Mining Property and Environment area. From December 2017 to May 2023, he was added to his previous responsibilities the areas of Human Resources and Administration, as well as Sales and Logistics of Freeport-McMoRan's operations in South America. In June 2023, he was appointed as Country Manager Chile Freeport-McMoRan.

Mario is a member of the Board of Directors of the Chile's Mining Council and Sociedad Contractual Minera El Abra, as well as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Freeport McMoRan Chile Foundation. In addition, he was elected Director of Amcham Chile for period 2026-2028 and appointed Chair of the Amcham Chile Corporate Governance and Compliance Committee.