

Vathit Chokwatana is Senior Vice Chairman of the Federation of Thai Industries (FTI), where he oversees ASEAN and Logistics. In this role, he plays a central part in strengthening Thailand's industrial linkages with regional partners, advancing supply chain efficiency, and enhancing the country's competitiveness within the ASEAN Economic Community. He is widely recognized for bridging public and private sector collaboration to position Thailand as a strategic crossroad for trade, logistics, and industrial integration.

Alongside his work at FTI, Mr. Vathit serves as President of Saha Pathanapibul Public Company Limited, a core company of the Saha Group. Under his leadership, the company continues to expand as one of Thailand's leading distributors and marketers of consumer products, representing both domestic and international brands. He also serves on the boards of several affiliated companies within the group, spanning distribution, logistics, technology, and retail ventures across Thailand and neighboring markets. His leadership emphasizes operational excellence, strategic partnerships, and regional growth.

He holds a bachelor's degree from San Francisco State University and an MBA from Assumption University, bringing both international perspective and local expertise to his business and policy leadership. He continues to advocate for Thailand's role as a key logistics and industrial hub within ASEAN.
