

Anindya Novyan Bakrie is an Indonesian business magnate, global investor and prominent philanthropist. Through his business community leadership roles over the years, he represents Indonesia and Indo-Pacific business community voices in global fora and summits. He is the CEO of Bakrie & Brothers, an Indonesian listed conglomerate with diversified business in industrialization and manufacturing, and one of the largest and oldest business groups in Indonesia with 12 companies listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange. He recently led a successful IPO of Indonesia's first EV heavy mobility company, VKTR, and is on a strong trajectory to pivot Bakrie Group towards sustainable and digital businesses.

He serves as the Chairman of the Supervisory Board at the Indonesia Chamber of Commerce. He is the Chairman of the Indonesian Aquatics Federation and the board of directors at Oxford United Football Club. He is a prominent philanthropist focusing on people, planet and prosperity through the Bakrie Centre Foundation. He is also a frequent attendee at the World Economic Forum and the Milken Institute Global Conference. He graduated as an industrial engineer from the Northwestern University and earned his MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business.