

Dang Thanh Tam is the Chairman of Saigon Invest Group (SGI), a prominent conglomerate in Viet Nam that has garnered 18 government-recognized awards for outstanding contributions since the year 2000.

SGI operates an extensive portfolio of 50 companies spanning diverse sectors such as Real Estate & Infrastructure, Telecom, IT & Television, Banking & Finance, Energy & Mining, Manufacturing & Construction, and Tourism & Education. Notably, SGI holds membership in the World Economic Forum as a Global Growth Companies (GGC) member representing Viet Nam. Among its assets, SGI encompasses three publicly-listed companies:

KinhBacCity (KBC), SaigonTel (SGT), and Saigon Quy Nhon Mining Co. (SQC). KBC, in particular, is the leading enterprise in Viet Nam on development, infrastructure construction of industrial parks, social housing and urban areas. With over 21 years of establishment since 2002, KBC has executed an extensive network of more than 24 industrial parks & clusters strategically located throughout Viet Nam. KBC plays a pivotal role as the primary gateway for foreign direct investment, attracting a remarkable 7% of Viet Nam's total annual foreign investment.

Mr. Tam's influence extends beyond the corporate realm. He has served as a Deputy and member of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the National Assembly of Viet Nam from 2011 to 2016. Additionally, he serves as Co-Chairman of the Viet Nam-Japan Economic Forum (VJEF), is a valued member of the Young Presidents' Organization (YPO-WPO), and holds the position of Chairman within the esteemed Viet Nam Golden Star Club—an organization comprising Viet Nam's top 1,000 businesses. Mr. Tam also proudly holds membership in the Chief Executives Organization (CEO).